Notable features:

This is a corner house of good proportions, in fair repair and with an interesting set of back buildings, including several shops. Nice facade on Schroeder Street shaded by two large trees. The house has a round-headed doorway.

Environmental context:

With the group behind it, 949 W. Fayette Street should be kept to maintain the intersection and to play its role as termination of the row 929-949 W. Fayette. The variety of volumes and shop fronts on Schroeder, plus the trees, offers real urban character.
